Subject: Request to Draft Resolution
Attachments: Resolution, Waisman Draft, updated.docx

Good Afternoon Attorney Grant:

I am unsure what LRB attorney to send this to so I am sending it to you with consideration of your UW system expertise. Attached is a resolution honoring the Waisman Center for its 40th anniversary. I am sending this for drafting on behalf of Rep. Taylor, but Rep. Sergeant is the lead author. Would you be able to draft this for introduction on the floor? Thank you. 6-5342

LRB - 1923 / P.
PK. SAC

(B)

Relating to: commending the Waisman Center on its 40th anniversary.

Whereas, the precursor to the Waisman Center research programs was created in 1963, the current facility opened in 1973 and under the recommendation of a Kennedy Administration presidential panel, the University of Wisconsin was chosen as one of 15 Eunice Kennedy Shriver Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities Research Centers and thereby established the Waisman Center; and

Whereas, the Waisman Center is a state, national, and international leader in academic research, clinical service and community outreach for individuals with developmental disabilities and neurodegenerative diseases; and

Whereas, the Waisman Center has provided clinical services to more than 160,000 people, and has provided training to 10,000 undergraduate and graduate students in the areas of developmental disabilities and neurodegenerative diseases; and

Whereas, the Waisman Center is a world leader in the use of cellular-based strategies to investigate brain development in Down syndrome, fragile X syndrome, Rett syndrome, and other developmental disorders and to create therapeutic applications for Parkinson's disease, ALS and other neurodegenerative diseases; and

Whereas, in 1975, the Waisman Center initiated one of the first genetics counseling programs in the United States, and remains the only program of its kind in Wisconsin; and

Whereas, the Waisman Center is an ongoing resource for the Madison community and the state of Wisconsin through its extensive training for service providers, its community outreach program, and its establishment of the Waisman Resource Center for families of children and adults with special health care needs; and

Whereas, the Waisman Center is dedicated to serving children and youth with special health care needs. Through its comprehensive Wisconsin Children with Special Health Care Needs program, the Waisman Center provides a statewide network of thorough and free-of-charge support services for youth from birth to 21 years of age; and

Whereas, in 2001, the Waisman Center significantly expanded its facility, including the creation of the Waisman Laboratory for Brain Imaging and Behavior and Waisman Biomanufacturing which yielded a unique combination of resources integral to translational research; and

Whereas, the Waisman Center is the only center in the United States that fully houses both an Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities Research Center and University Center for Excellence in Developmental Disabilities in one facility; now, therefore, be it

(S.I.)

Resolved by the assembly, the senate concurring, That the Wisconsin legislature hereby congratulates the Waisman Center on 40 years of achievement, discovery, and hope.
